FARMING IN VIRGINIA—ENCOURAGING EXAMPLES OF SUCCESS.—Since the conclusion of the war our planting friends have had so little to cheer them in their labors, and have generally been so discouraged that we take especial pleasure in recording the following instances of successful farming on the southside of James river:

In Amelia county, Mr. Wm. A. Gills cultivated his farm last year (1866) with a force of only four men, one woman and a boy, except that in the summer he employed extra labor to the amount of five dollars only. He had two horses, for one of which he paid $20 in money, and for the other five gallons of brandy.

He made 16 hogsheads of tobacco; all of it shipping tobacco, averaging 1,400 lbs. to the hogshead, and for which he received $2,500. In addition to the tobacco crop he made 40,000 lbs. of oats, and 135 bbls (875 bushels) of corn.

In Nottingham county the "Lyness" estate, owned by A. D. Dickson, esq., was cultivated last year (1866) by Mr. Daniel Bradshaw as manager. There were employed on the estate only five men, who were assisted during the summer by a little extra labor, not lasting more than six weeks, the entire cost of which (regular and extra) was a little less than $600.
His "teams" comprised four horses and one yoke of oxen.

The crops on this estate made by this force were 15 hds. of tobacco (averaging about 1,400 lbs. to the hd.) say 20,000 lbs.; 231 bbls (1,155 bushels) of long corn, and in addition a very large crop of oats, fodder and other forage, not weighed, but much more than sufficient for the use of the farm. There was no guano or other foreign fertilizer used, and no stock on the place except the work animals above mentioned, and no person except the five laborers and the manager with a small family.—Richmond Enquirer.

INTERESTING INCIDENT.—We were informed of an incident yesterday which illustrates the strong feeling of attachment which exists on the part of some of the freed people for those who formerly held the relation of master toward them. An old citizen, who by the war and other causes, became so reduced in circumstances that he was compelled to seek asylum in the city poor house, desiring a little money to procure some luxuries which are not furnished to the inmates of that institution, applied to a colored girl whom he had formerly owned and to whom he had always been kind, for the assistance which he desired. She promptly told him to call the next day and she would comply with his request. In the meantime she applied to her employer and asked him for five dollars, to be taken out of her wages, saying she wished to give it to her "old master." He called the next morning, and she at once handed the whole amount to him.
The old gentleman was affected to weeping by the generosity of the act. We record with pleasure an act so honorable, not only to the giver, but to a too selfish human nature. The gift was munificent when the means of the donor are considered. It was more than the widow's mite.

On the other hand we know of almost daily instances of kindness and liberality by white persons to poor colored persons who were once their slaves.—Lynchburg Virginian.

CONFISCATION.—We commend those who desire to see deeper than the surface of political movements in the Southern States to the letter of our Virginia correspondent, writing from Lynchburg, which we publish this morning. It comes from one who understands thoroughly the subject on which he writes, and who looks at it from a higher level and with broader views than any which are embraced in the conflicts of rival political parties. He treats mainly of the future of the negro vote, and says it is impossible not to see that argument is to be the leading principle upon which the future parties of the South are to be divided.
The idea of confiscation is rapidly taking hold of the mind of the negroes—and although there are counteracting influences to which he holds out temptations which it is not easy for a population so uneducated and inexperienced as the negroes to resist. The great body of the Union whites are awaiting further development before deciding upon the political action they shall take.—N.Y. Times, May 30.

A NEW WATERFALL.—The Louisville Journal thus describes a new invention, worn by the belles of Indianapolis: It consists of a cocoonant fastened to the region of the cerebellum by ribbons. It is a beautiful arrangement, the nut being itself covered with a natural growth of brown hair, which makes artificial covering unnecessary; the size is exactly right for people who moderately obey the ruling fashion.
It can certainly be made very useful, as by having a door cut in the nut, brushes, combs, scent bottles, and other little necessities of the toilet can be carried very conveniently. If this fashion should become general it will do away with the everlasting question of accounting for the presence of milk in cocoanets. It will then be evident that it is simply for toilet use, and only a wise provision of nature.

A FUNNY MATRIMONIAL AFFAIR recently occurred near Spirit Lake, Minn. A green justice married three couples in one batch and about four weeks afterward discovered that a license from the Clerk of the Court was necessary to make the ceremony legal, and he lost no time in informing the parties that they were still single, though they had lived together the intervening time. The first couple were willing to risk the consequences; the second consented to be remarried; while the third, having discovered in each other divers and sundry shortcomings, refused to have the knot retied, being satisfied with one month of matrimony, and glad to revert to single blessedness.

KNOW THY DESTINY.—MADAME E. F.
THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrist, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located her self at Hudson, N.Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of tran-sire, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomètre, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert.
She will send, when desired, a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications are strictly confidential. Address, in confidence, Madame E. F. Thornton, P. O. Box 223 Hudson, N.Y. mh 22-1y

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, bushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion.
By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.
Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order by W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3, West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y.

WONDERFUL, BUT TRUE!—MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Sommambulist Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometre, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can assert. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig!
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair, and rejoice in your new and radiant hair.
REPARATOR CAPILLI.
For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the hair to grow upon the scalp, and it will force the hair to grow upon the face, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from the over experience) can bear testimony. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It is certainly difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchases. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your druggist does not keep it, send us $1, and we will forward it by post, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address
